November 28 Saturday 1 PM: Demonstration/class on making liquid stevia.

Herb of the Month: Stevia

Medicinal: Excellent sugar substitute. May balance blood sugar, has properties to cleanse the intestines.

Spiritual: Healing, psychic energies.

Making your own stevia liquid

Use a bigger canning jar;
Warm water or alcohol (but not boil)
Add ¼ cup of dried stevia leaves and
1 cup of distilled water or clear alcohol.
Stir around and cover overnight. 1 day longer if not sweet enough.
Take an eyedropper the next day to see if it is sweet enough.
Strain and put in a bottle with an eyedropper.
Label and refrigerate.

Remember a dropper full of stevia is like 3 teaspoons of sugar. Or ¼ cup of liquid stevia is equaled more or less of a cup of sugar.

Sarah's' recipe for Scalloped Potatoes

It's November, which means it's time for the annual Thanksgiving feast! Gardens have withered for the year, but that doesn't mean that we can't still enjoy time together and delicious food. It's the season of root vegetables, so what's better than a delicious side dish of scalloped potatoes to go with your turkey? Let's make it.

You'll Need:

* 4 Cups of Thinly Sliced Russet and Yukon Gold Potatoes (about 2 cups of each)
* 1 Medium/Large Onion – Thinly Sliced
* 3 TBSP Butter
* 3 TBSP All Purpose Flour
* 1 TST Salt

1 ½ Cups Grated Cheese (Any kind you have, but freshly grated works best)

* Dash of Cayenne Pepper and Paprika
* 1 ½ Cups Milk (whole milk works best for this)

To Make:

* Preheat your oven to 350
* in a small sauce pan, melt the butter and stir in the flour, this is called a roux. Stir together for about 1-2 minutes until the flour is fully incorporated.
* Whisk in the milk, salt, paprika, and cayenne pepper
* Cook on low until a smooth, bubbly sauce forms – stirring constantly
* Once the sauce forms, add in 1 cup of the grated cheese and stir until fully incorporated - this makes your cheese sauce. Remove from heat and set aside.
* In a greased 9x13 pan, place half of your potatoes and onions (you can arrange them in a nice order if you'd like).
* Pour in half of your cheese sauce.
* Add the rest of the potatoes and onions, and pour in the rest of your cheese sauce
* Top with your remaining cheese
* Bake covered for about 1 hour or until the potatoes are fork tender.
* Remove the cover and broil for a couple of minutes for a crispy cheese topping

I hope you enjoy!
